DEAR CONSERVATIONIST,

We are the Center for ReSource Conservation (CRC): thirty people in Boulder making conservation so simple that you don't even realize you're doing it.

In 2015, we achieved record levels of water conservation, waste diversion, and clean energy growth. We helped more than 73,000 Coloradans improve their homes and businesses — saving them money and preserving the environment.

Our proven, cost-effective programs include:

Providing water-wise landscaping through our Garden In A Box program and Slow the Flow sprinkler inspections to reduce unnecessary water use.

Installing High-Efficiency Toilets, which cut household water usage by up to 300,000 gallons per toilet.

Helping kids unleash their creative powers to lower their energy use through ReNew Our Schools.

Diverting waste from landfills while offering affordable materials for reuse at ReSource.

This year, CRC is celebrating 40 years of conservation across the Colorado Front Range. And we're just getting started. Building on our success, we are focused on smart growth and innovation, scaling our programs to help even more people make easy changes that will deliver lasting impacts on our environment.

Thank you for your partnership and support of our mission.

Your participation in our programs and generous contributions help us meet the challenges facing our natural resources today — and far into the future.

With appreciation,

Ben Apple
